

Klaus Doenitz Reported Killed

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, May 14 (AP) — A Berne, Switzerland, dispatch to the Swedish newspaper Allehanda said today that Klaus Doenitz, eldest son of German Admiral Karl Doenitz, supreme commander of the German Navy, had been killed when a British destroyer attacked a German motor torpedo boat recently. Lieut. Peter Doenitz, the admiral's youngest son and a U-boat officer, was reported by Berlin last March 12 to have been killed in action in the Atlantic.

The New York Times

Copyright © The New York Times
Originally published May 15, 1944